NBL CANADA ATLANTIC DIVISION PLAYERS OF THE WEEK:

The National Basketball League of Canada is pleased to announce that Horace Wormely of the Saint John Riptide has been named Atlantic Division Player of the Week for the week ending March 12, 2017.

Wormely, a 5'6" guard who played collegiately at Vanguard, averaged in double figures in three Riptide wins this week, and his final game of the week saw him hitting long-distance three-point shots to help Saint John take a win from the division-leading Halifax Hurricanes.

"Today he was 5 for 6 from 3 and they were all big threes," said Riptide head coach Rob Spon. "From the second day he got here, he said, 'Coach this will be my team in the next five days,' he had everybody believing in him. He makes everybody better on the team, he works hard in practice and he's tough as nails. We do closeout drills, he guards anybody one-on-one, and the last three games he's led us, big shots and running the offence and getting everybody running. One of the fastest guys in the league, just a blur. that's what I love about the kid."

It's been a season of growth for him," said Lightning head coach Kyle Julius. "He does have a mental illness that he has to fight and work through and live with it on a daily basis, he did have a stigma that he hadn't played for so long, if you look at what he's done so far, he's shown you that he's consistently and mentally present every day, and he's an exceptional athlete, a great basketball player and an excellent teammate, and he's flown with us several times this year. The National Basketball League of Canada has confirmed the following playoff format for the 2016-17 NBL season. The top four teams in each division will advance to the postseason.

The magic number listed will count down to clinching the regular season division lead. When the magic number reaches zero, the team in first place has mathematically clinched the division title.

In the NBL quarterfinals, teams #1-#4 and teams #2-#3 will play each other in a best-of-five series, with a 2-2-1 format. The higher seed will have home court for games 1, 2 and (if necessary) 5.

In the NBL semifinals, the divisional teams will face each other in a best-of-seven series, with a 2-2-1-1-1 format. The higher seed will host games 1, 2, and (if necessary) 5 and 7.

The remaining team in each division will play each other in the NBL Finals, which will be a best-of-seven series with a 2-3-2 format. The team with the higher regular season winning percentage will receive home court advantage for Games 1, 2 and (if necessary) 6 and 7. The winner of that series will be named National Basketball League of Canada Playoff Champion and receive a championship trophy commemorating their victory.

In the event that two or more teams are tied in terms of playoff seeding, the following tiebreakers will take place, in order of importance:

- (1) head-to-head record shall determine the winner;
- (2) if still a tie, head-to-head record against common opponents will determine the winner;
- (3) if still a tie, points scored in head to head competition will determine the winner;
- (4) if still a tie, average margin of victory against common opponents will determine the winner;
- (5) if still a tie, the team correctly calling the flip of a coin will be seeded higher.

Playoff format subject to change due to venue availability.
